

WESTERN ASSOCIATION
OF WOMEN
HISTORIANS

41st Annual Conference
40th Anniversary Conference

Santa Clara University
April 30-May 3, 2009

WELCOME

Welcome to the 40th Anniversary Celebration of the Western Association of Women Historians!

WAWH was founded by a small group of women historians meeting at Asilomar, on the Monterey Peninsula, California, in June 1969. We have held annual meetings every year since then. We pride ourselves on the range of both topics and presenters, a tradition which is amply represented by this year's conference. There are over one hundred papers to choose from, ranging in time and space from medieval European nuns to modern Iranian women, with stops for global feminisms and how-to sessions on being a women historian.

This is a good opportunity to renew old friendships and make new acquaintances. It's a time to check out the latest research in your own field as well as to try something new. Attend a session on something completely different. The choices are many.

We would like to invite you join us in celebrating former WAWH presidents at a reception on Friday evening, followed by dinner and a musical event, "Our Smart Women," (with loose credit to "My Fair Lady") chronicling the vicissitudes of women historians.

We hope that you will relax and enjoy yourself and come away feeling renewed and refreshed and with new enthusiasm for the next 40 years of being a woman historian!

Carol Gold
President, WAWH
